Erie Calls for Feminine Section Hands in Orange County. So scarce is labor that men in charge of the section of the Eric Railroad runcing through Orange County yesterday offered jobs to women. Notices calling for "female help to work on the track" were posted, and advertisements inscrted in Orange County papers by John De Angelo, section foreman, and J. W. Daniher, agent of the livision of the road that runs from Newburgh south to Suffern. The women are wanted to do ordinary section hands' work. Recently two women gate tenders at the Hillburn Crossing in Rockland County departed, saying life amid speeding automobiles and fast trains was too strenuous.
